

Soups

Chicken soup

with homemade noodles (traditional Polish or Jewish recipe).

Tomato soup

made from slow cooked tomatoes.

Red borscht

serve with mini dumplings filled with wild mushrooms (traditional polish recipe).

Polish ryemeal soup with sausage, fresh horseradish.

Ukrainian borscht

Chestnut, veg, chorizo soup

French onion

Potato, leak

Thai soup

with chicken and galangal.

Chicken soup

with wonton dumplings.

I believe

That once soups were possibly the least interesting part of people meal. Fortunately now they are very important and exciting dishes, which combine the essence of ingredients to form a very nurturing meal. Some of my soups I made according to my granny's recipes (still remember picking up the fresh veggies from her own big garden) others, are complete fusion (like my favourite traditional polish chicken soup with wonton dumplings)